

Pavillion theme

Supporting sustainable agriculture production

Session

Knowledge and best practices from Indian landscapes

Day 1 – 15th Oct '24

Partner

WRI INDIA

2:30 PM – 4:30 PM
(120 minutes)

This session aims to share available knowledge and best practices of sustainable agriculture. It also explores the contribution of indigenous and local knowledge systems to agricultural practices, climate resilience, seed sovereignty and gender equality.

Overview speaker:

P.K.Joshi, Former Director South Asia, IFPRI

Sustainability in Production– Knowledge and Practice

Speakers:

1. Kuntalika Kumbhakar, Integrator (Centre of Excellence Nutrition), Professional Assistance For Development Action (PRADAN)

Lessons from women-led sustainable agriculture for multiple benefits including nutrition

2. Rajeshree Joshi, Program Director, BAIF Development Research Centre

Learnings from integration of multiple cropping practices and livestock management in a landscape

3. R Rengalakshmi, Executive Director, Area Operations, MSSRF

Innovative models for extension and capacity building for creating awareness on sustainable agriculture

4. Dr. Ruchika Singh, Executive Program Director – Food, Land and Water, WRI India

Restoring landscapes in India for climate and communities: A systems change perspective