

Pavillion theme

Facilitating rainfed area management

Session

Significance of pastoral and extensive livestock systems

Day 2 - 16th Oct '24

Partner

2:40 PM – 4:40 PM
120 minutes

This session will spotlight the critical role that pastoral and extensive livestock systems continue to play in integrated farming systems; and ways to further strengthen them.

Overview speaker:

D. K. Sadana, Founder, Indigenous Livestock Society (ILSI)

Safeguarding sustainable pastoralist systems through protecting commons.

Speakers:

1. Ramesh Bhatti, Programme Director Sahjeevan

Camel Milk: a source of Nutrition is key to conserve camel breeds and their ecologies: An experience from Kachchh Gujarat.

2. Hemalatha N. Farmer, Prakruthi FPO, Ayyavaripalli, Andhra

Fallows to Fodder: Farmers' perspective on increasing income through cultivation of commons and fallows.

3. Anshul Ohja, Founder & Principal Anchor, Desert Resource Centre

Camel production system and value chain development

4. Natasha Maru, Global Lead for Rangelands and Pastoralists, ILC

International Year of Rangelands and Pastoralists (IYRP) 2026: Scope of building pastoral and common agenda