

Pavillion theme

Driving sustainable food distribution systems and consumption behaviour

Session

Mainstreaming private sector commitments on sustainability: nutrition, environment and livelihood

Day 2 - 16th Oct '24

Partners

2:40 PM – 4:40 PM
120 minutes

The session will focus on pathways for mainstreaming commitments by MNCs to greening their supply chains. Discussions will centre on various corporate initiatives on aspects ranging from equitable livelihoods for smallholder farmers to enhanced climate resilience against climate change threats.

Overview speaker:

Madhuri Nanda, Director- South Asia, Rainforest Alliance
Regulatory nudges towards sustainability

Speakers:

- 1. Shobhit Srivastava, Programme Manager, Centre for Science and Environment, CSE
How to strengthen the BRSR framework in India to enable investors and policy makers in making informed decisions.
- 2. Atul Mudaliar, Director of Systems Change, India, Climate Group
Corporate-led initiative that can effectively drive transformative climate action in India's food systems
- 3. Kavitha Ramasamy, Joint Director, FSSAI
Importance of front of pack labelling in shaping consumer behaviour
- 4. Prof. Pulkit Mathur, Department of Food and Nutrition and Food Technology, Lady Irwin College
Defining Healthy Foods: A Review of Existing Nutrient Profiling Models