

Pavillion theme

Facilitating rainfed area management

Session

Securing livelihoods through people-centric approaches in millets value chain

Day 3 - 17th Oct '24

Partner

1:30 PM – 3:30 PM
120 minutes

This session will address strategies for climate-proofing the livelihood options for small and marginal farmers engaged in the millets value chain.

Overview speaker:

Raman Ahuja, Advisor, FAO

Policies needed for people-centric approaches in millets

Speakers:

1. Supriya Gowda, Programme Manager, Millet mentor

Ecosystem support services for strengthening decentralized millet processing

2. Hiramani Bankia & Mahima Khillu, Nari Shakti FPC, Lamtaput, Odisha

Enabling small & marginal farmers in millet procurement

3. T. S. Sukanya, Professor (Agronomy), PC Unit, ICAR-AICRP on Small Millets, GKVK, Bangalore

Securing livelihoods through people-centric approaches in millets value chain.

4. Sudha Nagavarapu, Independent Researcher-Activist, Sangtin

Sehat ka Bardana: Experiences in building a local food system for millets in Sitapur and Hardoi districts, Uttar Pradesh